

Violin 1

Charlie Barber

for chamber orchestra

Instrumentation:

2 Flutes
 2 Oboes
 2 Clarinets in B flat
 2 Bassoons

2 Horns in F
 2 Trumpets in B flat

Timpani

Percussion (one player): Large Tam-tam, Orchestral Bass Drum

Violin 1
 Violin 2
 Viola Violoncello
 Contrabass

Score in C

Duration:

c. 6 minutes

Programme note:

Curtain Tune on a Ground is a reworking of the opening music from BreakBeats, a multimedia event written in 2006. Originally titled 12-Bar Ground, the piece was written for piano, percussion, DJ and breakdancers. This new version is scored for chamber orchestra.

A ‘curtain tune’ is theatrical music played to accompany the raising or lowering of a stage curtain, and historically the term was also used for an overture. A ground, or ground bass, is a short, repeating melodic phrase in the bass that provides the foundation for an entire composition.

The title also pays homage to the Curtain Tunes of the British Baroque composers Matthew Locke and Henry Purcell.

Charlie Barber, September 2026

Curtain Tune on a Ground

Charlie Barber

A Lento $\text{♩} = 60$

trem. norm.

7

sim.

p mp mp cresc.

B Piu mosso $\text{♩} = 96$ x 2

13

f

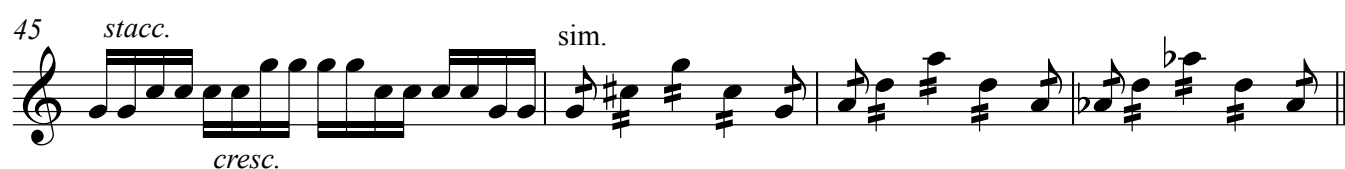

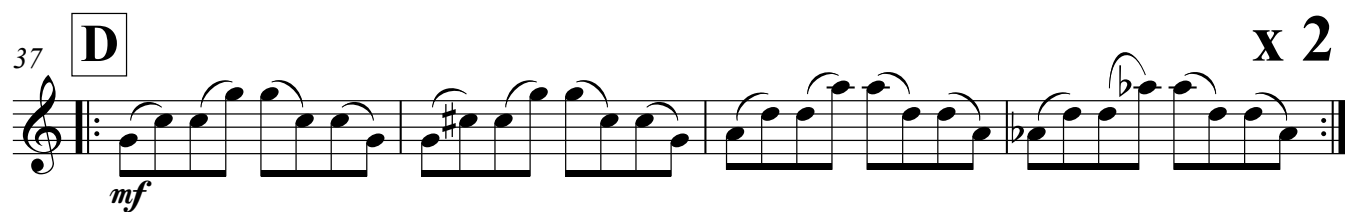

21

cresc.

25 C

7

Charlie Barber - Curtain Tune on a Ground

Charlie Barber - Curtain Tune on a Ground

61 F measured

ff dim. f dim.

67

p

73 G

f stacc.

75 x 3

f

85 H

f

87 x 3

f

97 I

f

Charlie Barber - Curtain Tune on a Ground

